La Jolla's Finest

Head to La Jolla for two days of fine art and fine food at the 27th annual La Jolla Festival of the Arts. Nearly 200 local and national artists will showcase their latest creations across UC San Diego's Warren Field—including oil and watercolor paintings, sculptures, jewelry and photography. Expect a variety of food vendors, craft beer, wine and live music from such groups as the Jazz88 All-Stars and RockinJazzBigBand. All net proceeds from the nonprofit event will benefit more than 30 San Diego organizations dedicated to helping wounded veterans and those with disabilities. Online tickets are $12 or $14 at the door. June 22-23, UC San Diego, Warren Field, 760.753.1670, lajollaartfestival.org
